ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

This Conference, "Global Trends and Professional Development in Teacher Education: The Indian Context," examines international shifts in teacher preparation and their relevance to India's evolving education landscape. Bringing together policymakers, teacher educators, researchers, and practitioners, it explores digital pedagogies, competency-based assessment, inclusive practices, and integration of Indian Knowledge Systems. Sessions highlight scalable CPD models, mentorship and induction, EdTech innovations (VR/AR, gamification), teacher wellbeing, and evidence-based approaches. Participants will share research, policy insights, and practical strategies to strengthen school-university links, foster continuous learning, and design context-sensitive professional development pathways that enhance teacher effectiveness and student outcomes across diverse Indian classrooms.
